

Soulmates

Intro

The year is 2190. Uploading your consciousness to the Great Server in the Sky is the new standard. You have just left your physical life on Earth. You lost your Soulmate during the upload and need to find them, but you also found... your Hellmate. Your Soulmate is the love of your life, the person you chose to spend eternity with in the Great Server in the Sky. Your Hellmate is someone you came across in life that would make both of your eternities living hell, and it is your mission to make them miserable.

You have to carefully balance finding your Soulmate while also deceiving your Hellmate. The following are the points you can earn for each. There are three rounds, and each round you'll be assigned a Community, get paired with an unknown Soulmate, and a Hellmate whose identity and Community you will know.

Scoring

You correctly identify your Soulmate: 1pt
You trick your Hellmate into choosing you: 1pt
You and your Soulmate both find each other: 2pts

Rules

For an even number of players, minimum 4 recommended 6 or more.
Players must address their questions to a specific person.
Round 1 you can ask 3 questions.
Round 2 you can ask 2 questions.
Round 3 you can only ask 1 question.

You and your Soulmate are from the same type of Community you should roleplay from. You will be DM'd which community type that is. You will also be notified about your Hellmate. Good luck! If playing without the bot, one person can be the game master and assign roles/soulmates/hellmates.

Music

If you want to hear our original soundtrack invite Rythm bot to your server and type this command once the bot is in your voice channel "!play <https://soundcloud.com/nick-adams-121526848/soulmate-ost> "
